Cake for everyone to celebrate Recorder's 70th year!

The North Royalton Festival Parade seems to be growing year-by-year. If you attended the Festival Parade on Sunday, August 21, you know what a great time it was for everyone. Thousands and thousands of residents lined Ridge Road to watch some 90 entries march in the parade. The children were excited to stand by and cash in on all the candy to the residents of our community.

We are especially grateful to all our major sponsors who have contributed to making this annual event a source of enjoyment to the residents of North Royalton and surrounding communities. They are: Gross Builders, Southwest General Health Center, Custom Color & Collision Center, Mayor Bob Stefanik, Fifth Third Bank, Royalton Recorder, CareWorks Consultants, Jackson Dieken & Associates.

We would also like to thank our Support Sponsors: A T & T, Morgan Benefits, Royalton Dental Associates, Thomas G. McCune DDS, First Federal of Lakewood, North Royalton Animal Hospital & Boarding, Doctors of Optometry, Giant Eagle, Healing Hands Massage

Therapy, Walthall, Drake & Wallace LLP, Carrie Cerino's Ristorante, Tina Stopar State Farm Insurance, Automotive Workshop, Royalton Supply, Abbey Road Storage, American Income Life, Mt. After the parade, Chamber directors and Recorder staff served more than 600 pieces of birthday cake to residents at the City Green.

The sky hinted rain just before the parade started but then decided to let us go and it held off until about 6:15 p.m. when there was just a little thunder storm. Undaunted, though, residents stayed in the tents until the rain cleared and then returned to enjoy the rest of the evening.

The Royalton Recorder, marking its 70th year in publication, celebrated at the festival with birthday cake. Chamber directors and Recorder staff sliced and served more than 600 pieces of cake to those in attendance.

We hope you were able to enjoy the 127th Annual North Royalton Community Festival. Your North Royalton Chamber of Commerce is proud to organize and sponsor this annual event that brings so much enjoyment Crowds gathered around the gazebo to enjoy the various entertainment on stage.

Cuyahoga Valley Career Center offers services to local business

We hope you have enjoyed your summer and had a chance to include a little time off from your work for some rest and relaxation. We are back from summer break and ready to resume our monthly meetings.

Our speaker for the September 21st Chamber Breakfast will be Kathy Grubb, Cuyahoga Valley Career Center Assistant Principal. Kathy, also a North Royalton resident, is looking forward to speaking with the chamber members to share information on how CVCC is a great resource for North Royalton business and community members.

Cuyahoga Valley Career Center is celebrating the Center's 40th anniversary this October 1. In those 40 years, CVCC has grown from a traditional vocational school—established to serve an eight-school district consortium, including North Royalton—to a technologically advanced career-technical school that serves thousands of students, parents, businesses, and customers through a variety of educational programs and customer services. Award-winning students that graduate with high-level skills and real world experience have catapulted it the #1 Career Center ranking in Ohio. CVCC is poised to help NE Ohio prepare for a strong economic future.

The Chamber Breakfast will be on Wednesday, September 21, 8 a.m. at Flair Restaurant, 12841 State Road, North Royalton. The cost is $12 for members and $15 for non-members. To RSVP, please call 440-237-6180 or email rrnews@aol.com.
